

Announcing the Cinema Vita Film Festival!

Films for Life

CINEMA VITA FILM FESTIVAL

Cinema Vita means Films for Life. Art, particularly the medium of film, shapes the popular imagination and influences culture. The Film Festival is dedicated to encouraging emerging filmmakers, showcasing movies about contemporary issues concerning life and exploring life's deep significance. To that end, we invite the submission of 3-to-5 minute original films to compete in three divisions: high school, college and an open category.

Where: Delancy Street Theater, 600 Embarcadero, San Francisco

When: Friday, March 7, 2008 from 6 pm to 10 pm

What:

- Showcase of Winner's Films: High School, College and Open categories
- Our premier presentation is the internationally acclaimed movie, After the Truth, a German film that portrays the fictional trial of Dr. Josef Mengele, the angel of death of Auschwitz.

Sponsorships are currently being sought with one of the benefits being admission to a Pre-Screening Cocktail Reception on February 26, 2008.

For submission guidelines and other information on sponsorships, timetable and prizes, please visit our website or call 415-387-2324.

WWW.CINEMAVITA.ORG

Coordinated by
San Francisco Archdiocesan Office of Public Policy
Oakland Diocesan Respect Life Ministry Marriage for Life
Ignatius Press